to the law of that State, but the tax so charged shall not exceed:

(a) 5 percent of the gross amount of the dividends if the recipient is a company which holds directly at least 10 percent of the outstanding shares of the voting stock of the company paying
the dividends,

the dividends.

This paragraph shall not affect the taxation of the company in respect of the dividends, being a resident of a Contracting State, has in the

(3) Where, owing to a special relationship between the payer and the recipient or between both of them and some other person, the amount of interest paid, having regard to the debt claim for which it is paid, exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by payer and the recipient in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Article shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount. (4) The provisions of paragraph (2) shall not apply if the recipient of the royalties, being a resident of a Contracting State, has in the other Contracting State in which the royalties arise, a permanent establishment with which the right or property giving rise to the royalties is effectively connected. In such a case, the provisions of Article 8 shall apply.

(5) Royalties shall be deemed to arise in a Contracting State only to the extent that such royalties are payments made as consideration for the use of, or the right to use, property or rights described in paragraph (3) within that Contracting State.

(6) Where, owing to a special relationship between the payer and the recipient or between both of them and some other person, the amount of the royalties paid, having regard to the use, right, or information for which they are paid, exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the recipient in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Article shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount.
In that case, the excess part of the payments shall remain taxable according to the law of each Contracting State, due regard being had to the other provisions of this Convention.
